8. (Confide	ential - JGO) Met with William Phillips, Staff Director, Government Operat	oreign Operations and Government Information, House ions Committee, and delivered to him Mr. Colby's letter concerning pu	ublic information activities. In keeping with our previou discussion, Phillips	s agreed that the letter is satisfactory. As an aside, he told me that the Cor	mmittee plans later in the year to update the very extensive hearings	on polygraph that were conducted some eight years ago.
They intend to look	into the new equipment state of the art and utilization of the new equipment i	in the Federal Government. So far there has been no specific plans for th	ne hearings. Phillips said he would keep me advised as the matter progress	sea.
